FEBRUARY 2017

MINISTER'S LETTER

‘What is truth?’ is a question that we usually wait until Holy Week to ponder, when we find ourselves alongside Jesus as he stands before Pontius Pilate and Pilate, who seemingly holds all the power in this situation, asks this question of Jesus. This year, however, and following the election of Donald Trump as US President, we have been confronted by it somewhat earlier.

In the wake of the election of Donald Trump as US President, Sean Spicer, White House Press Secretary, used his very first statement to complain about the media’s coverage of the Inauguration. In doing so he made a number of claims that were very quickly rounded upon as being false - one of which being that Trump’s Inauguration had attracted “the largest audience ever”. In seeking to later defend Spicer, Kellyanne Conway, one of Donald Trump’s advisers, suggested that he had simply offered “alternative facts”.

Given that this followed an election campaign during which Trump was repeatedly shown to have offered his own “alternative facts” - it seems that ‘truth’ is something that is up for grabs in the eyes of Donald Trump.

When Pilate asked of Jesus, ‘What is truth?’, it was in response to a claim that Jesus had made moments before. Pilate had previously asked him, ‘So you are a king?’ and “Jesus (had) answered, ‘You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.’” (John 18: 37).

Trump made a lot of his love of the Bible during the election campaign, frequently calling it either “the greatest book of all time” or “my favourite book”. He also said that, should he win, he would become “the greatest representative of the Christians that they’ve had in a long time”. Mmmmm.

We can only hope that, in the days, weeks, months and years ahead, as he finds himself charged both with the responsibility of the office to which he has been elected and with the need to speak the truth, he might truly listen for that voice to which Jesus refers. For, as I mentioned on the Sunday following his inauguration, I might not be looking in the right places but nowhere can I find kingdom values (values that I see as being synonymous with Jesus' voice) being aligned with self-interest, national interest, racism, misogyny, the open mocking of a person living with disability or lying. Rather, in the light of the kingdom values that I discover from those things that Jesus identified himself with and committed himself to, I see this to be a list of things to be opposed and confronted.

The next four years may well see us asking ourselves the question, 'What is truth?' - or even, 'Where is the truth in all of this?' - many times over. As we do so, let's remember that it remains our task to listen for Jesus' voice at all times, our task to examine ourselves (and not just others) in the light of this voice, and our task to speak truth to power wherever and whenever necessary.

With every blessing,

Paul

Merton Street Pastors

In December 30 of our volunteers, representing 18 churches, patrolled the Mitcham, Morden and Wimbledon areas. During this time they spoke with many people and gave support to others .

On 23rd December the team joined with the Salvation Army brass band to host a Carol Event in the White Lion of Mortimer pub in Mitcham and on New Year's Eve five members joined in the joint Central London Patrol.

To date we have 47 people from 26 churches in the area as trained Street Pastors. If you wish to join the team there will be a Training Course starting on Saturday 11th March 2017 - to find out more email merton@streetpastors.org.uk or phone 07412 018920

The eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, on those whose hope is in his unfailing love.

Psalm 33:18

The verdict should be delivered in the trial of Rev Hassan, Mr Jašek and Mr Abdumawla. They've been in prison in Sudan since December 2015 – all because they helped raise money to treat a young man who'd been badly burned in a student protest. A fourth man, Rev Kuwa, was also on trial but was released on 3 January after the charges against him were dismissed.

Please pray:

- That Rev Hassan, Mr Jašek and Mr Abdumawla would be released and the charges against them dismissed
- For the families of the three men as they await the verdict
- For God to protect the lawyers defending Rev Hassan, Mr Jašek and Mr Abdumawla
- For unity and protection for the Church in Sudan and particularly in the capital, Khartoum.

This week's Prayer Diary:

China

January marks the start of Chinese New Year, and the end of what has been another year of harassment and uncertainty for many of China's human rights defenders. As a new year starts in China, please pray that it would bring with it justice and freedom for all China's citizens.

In October 2016 CSW supporters gathered outside the Chinese embassy to protest the imprisonment of Li Heping, a Christian human rights lawyer who has been in prison since July 2015. Today, please pray that he would be released.

At the protest we read a message from Wang Qiaoling, his wife; “I will speak up not only for my husband, but for all the people that ‘fall down’ in front of me. It is your action that encouraged me.” Let’s ask God for bravery and protection for her & the family today.

Alimujiang Yimiti is a Christian from the Uyghur ethnic group, who has been in prison since 2008 – the UN Working Group on Arbitrary Detention concluded that it was ‘solely because of his faith’. Please pray that Alim and his family would be reunited.

In September 2016 the UK government expressed concerns about restrictions on freedom of religion or belief in China: an great development following Chinese President Xi Jinping’s visit. Thank God for this today.

Human rights lawyer Zhang Kai was released in March 2016 after being detained for his work defending human rights. Though he made a televised confession, some believe he was coerced into doing this. Please pray for his safety today.

Christians aren’t the only group at risk. Tibetan Buddhists, Uyghur Muslims and Falun Gong practitioners are all targets for government harassment, suffering imprisonment and torture just because of what they believe. Pray for them today.

God, at Chinese New Year we pray for the Chinese human rights defenders who have been imprisoned and tortured for their vital work. May the coming year bring them peace and safety, we pray.

Amen.

Thank you for your continued support and prayers.

George Müller
My Eye is Not on the Fog

Key Thought: "My eye is not on the density of the fog, but on the living God who controls every circumstance of my life."

The following incident from the life of George Müller is related by Mr. Inglis, who heard the story from the captain of the ship with whom Müller prayed.

When I first came to America, thirty-one years ago. I crossed the Atlantic with the captain of a steamer who was one of the most devoted men I ever knew, and when we were off the banks of Newfoundland he said to me:

"Mr. Inglis, the last time I crossed here, five weeks ago, one of the most extraordinary things happened which, has completely revolutionized the whole of my Christian life. Up to that time I was one of your ordinary Christians. We had a man of God on board, George Müller, of Bristol. I had been on that bridge for twenty-two hours and never left it. I was startled by someone tapping me on the shoulder. It was George Müller:

"'Captain, he said, 'I have come to tell you that I must be In Quebec on Saturday afternoon.' This was Wednesday.

"'It is impossible,' I said.

"'Very well, if your ship can't take me, God will find some other means of locomotion to take me. I have never broken an engagement in fifty seven years.'

"I would willingly help you. How can I? I am helpless.'

"Let us go down to the chart-room and pray.'

"I looked at that man of God, and I thought to myself, what lunatic asylum could that man have come from? I never heard of such a thing.

"Mr. Müller,' I said, 'do you know how dense the fog is?'

"No,' he replied, 'my eye is not on the density of the fog, but on the living God who controls every circumstance of my life.'

"He got down on his knees and prayed one of the most simple prayers. I muttered to myself: 'That would suit a children's class where the children were not more than eight or nine years old.' The burden of his prayer was something like this: 'O Lord, if it is consistent with Thy will, please remove this fog in five minutes. You know the engagement you made for me in Quebec Saturday. I believe it is your will.'

"When he finished. I was going to pray, but he put his hand on my shoulder and told me not to pray. "First, you do not believe He will; and second. I believe He has. And there is no need whatever for you to pray about it.' I looked at him, and George Müller said..

"Captain. I have known my Lord for forty-seven years, and there has never been a single day that I have failed to gain an audience with the King. Get up, captain, and open the door, and you will find the fog is gone.' I got up, and the fog was gone!

"You tell that to some people of a scientific turn of mind, and they will say, 'That is not according to natural laws.' No, it is according to spiritual laws. The God with whom we have to do is omnipotent. Hold on to God's omnipotence. Ask believingly. On Saturday afternoon, I may add, George Müller was there on time."

WOMEN'S WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

Friday 3rd March 2017 'Am I being unfair to you?'

The Day of Prayer service for 2017 has been written by the Christian women of The Philippines. Although written by women, all are invited.

In the story Jesus told about the kingdom of heaven, he saw no wrongdoing in giving equally. However, the workers who felt entitled to receive more greatly complained. This dialogue is turned into a question for the 2017 WDP theme - "Am I Being Unfair to You?"

Many Filipino women and girls are victims of domestic violence or sex trafficking, migrant domestic workers in the country or abroad, and survivors harmed emotionally and economically by disasters in the environment or unsustainable development policies. How can we hear these stories and not realize the sinfulness of structures that consolidate economic inequality? We are called to confess and take on our ethical responsibility to answer God's call for justice.

A traditional cultural practice, known as dagyaw, is introduced in the program. Dagyaw is a communal way of laboring each other's farms and equally benefiting from the harvest. It is used more frequently among organic farmers for sustainable agriculture.

"It is a good practice for building and sustaining a community, an actualization of compassion and care for each other." Maybe this is the key to a collective answer to "Am I Being Unfair to you?"

Although organised and led by women, this is essentially a day of prayer for everybody as we demonstrate our solidarity with our sisters and brothers in other countries and all are welcome to attend. Further information and resources, can be found on the WWDP website at www.wwdp.org.uk

A Big Thank You from Christian Care

On behalf of the Christian Care Committee, I send my thanks to you and to all the congregation at Martin Way for the gifts of toys for our families from the gift service held in December. Everyone was very thoughtful and generous. The toys will mean so much to the children, some were given as Christmas presents, by the time you read this many will have been distributed at our 'Great Big 50th Birthday Party' held on January 28th and others will be used throughout the year as birthday gifts.

We are getting an ever increasing number of requests from professionals working with children and families for toys and books for children who in many cases have little or nothing to play with at home. It is always a pleasure when we are able to help.

Sign up for Pursue Justice 2017, and you're signing up for a day that's jam-packed with exclusive information on religious freedom from CSW staff and other experts, and firsthand accounts of religious persecution. Not to mention incredible worship and informative seminars...

Our keynote speaker this year is Eritrean gospel singer Helen Berhane

Helen's story is challenging, inspiring, and deeply moving. She was arrested in a 2003 raid on a house where she was teaching young Christians. Beaten and imprisoned, she spent 32 months in a shipping container without adequate ventilation, light, sanitation or food. While in prison Helen was regularly tortured, a severe and sustained assault by a prison guard almost killed her and left her unable to walk. Helen was released in November 2006 and escaped to Sudan, where she had to keep a low profile. She was finally granted asylum in Denmark, where she recovered from her injuries.

Other guests include:

- Internationally renowned worship leader Lou Fellingham will be heading up the day's worship as well as running a seminar on prayer and worship
- Canon Sarah Snyder, the Archbishop of Canterbury's Advisor for Reconciliation, will be leading a seminar on justice and forgiveness
- Brian Heasley from 24-7 Prayer will be leading the opening devotion and the prayer and worship seminar with Lou Fellingham.

Our CSW advocacy experts will review our work over the past year in an exclusive seminar.

Church Family News

Sad News:

Some of our congregation may remember Dora Newton who passed away many years ago after being a long-standing member of our congregation. We have just learnt of her son Ray's death in July in his widow Marianne's Christmas greeting to us. They leave fond memories for those of us who knew the family well.

It is with great sadness we inform you that Dr Arthur Miller died peacefully during his sleep on 19th January. Please remember his daughters in your prayers.

Please also remember Joan Harding in your prayers. She suffered a fall and is now in hospital, probably for a long stay. Joan is coping, but only just.

Happy News:

Mary and Derek received the Christmas Greetings from Grace Ashwood. She sends her love to all and is very well. She is still getting about on her scooter and recently been on a cruise to Norway in September, which she enjoyed very much.
