London Marathon – Jupiter's update

Race date: Sunday 26th April 2026

Sponsoring: MENCAP

I know some of you have been thinking about supporting our London Marathon journey... and if you've been waiting for the perfect moment, today might just be it! You can donate here:

A huge, heartfelt THANK YOU to every single one of you who's already donated. Your kindness means so much — no matter the amount, it all adds up and makes a real difference. Please accept my big PRAISE for your generosity!

Training for a marathon is new for me, and it's been a real journey. At first, I thought it was just about running — but now I know rest and good food are just as important. It's all about balance, really. And the same goes for life — especially with all the amazing work you do every day. I hope you're also taking time to care for yourselves. You matter just as much to your loved ones.

Thanks again for cheering us on — We're so grateful. Let's finish April strong!

Warmly, Jupiter and Cody

Please remember in your prayers

- Jean Gear who is in Belmont House
- Kay Moore who is in Links House
- Mary Heaton who is receiving home care

Also, please remember their families and all who have anniversaries of the passing of their loved ones this week.

Spring Harvest 2027 - Early Booking

Next year, we shall be returning once again to Spring Harvest at Minehead from Easter Monday, 29th March to Friday, 2nd April 2027.

Unlike in past years when there was a mad rush to book when the booking office opened in mid-June, we can now book at any time. Some of us have already said we would like to go again next year and WE WOULD LIKE TO INVITE YOU TOO.

Regarding accommodation, the charge for a Comfort (aka Silver) Apartment, which we had this year, will be £10 more at £319 per person but there are none on the ground floor.

Alternatively, Comfort Plus (aka Gold) apartments are £359 and include towels, dishwasher and housekeeping with some being on the ground floor. We could mix-and match but there would be no guarantee that we would be grouped together.

I know it is somewhat early to think about next year but we are aiming to book by the end of April so that we can secure the accommodation that we want at its Early Bird price. So, if you would like to join us then we would need to know ASAP.

For more details, please see Tony or Mike to let them know that you would like to come with us. There are also a few 2027 brochures in the church vestibule for you to take away.
